Map 4: Current Flow

This map shows current flow for terrestrial connectivity among all natural and semi-natural pixels within 50 km of one another, created using the OmniScape moving window algorithm. The algorithm is illustrated in Figs. 2-4. Current flow is highest between areas with high source weights and along paths of low resistance.